the auspices of the Nineteenth Century club, may be pronounced an established success.

Liberal contributions have already been received, the largest, $50, given by Mr. Clarence Saunders, who again demonstrated his public spirit.

Mr. Thornton Newsum has pledged himself to collect 25 per cent of the $2,500, the amount which the committee has set for its goal.

A number of small contributions have also been pledged.

It is anticipated by the members that the club will be opened during the early part of November.

Benefit Match Sale.

A large number of orders have been taken by the members of the committee having in charge the match sale for the benefit of the Home for Aged Men. Mrs. A. S. Seville is the chairman of the committee and requests that all private sales should be delivered and collections made in order that the regular sale for which the date will be announced later may not interfere.

HERE and THERE

Mrs. Sam Plough has returned from Paris, Tenn., where she was called by the critical illness of her mother, Mrs. J. D. Weiden.

After a delightful visit of three months in Seattle, Wash., and other points in the West, Miss Rose Shalberg has returned to her home, 367 McLennan avenue.

Sgt. Abe Waldauer, who has been the guest of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Berg, 1311 Vinton avenue, during a brief furlough, will leave Wednesday evening to return to Camp MacArthur, Waco, Texas.

Miss Marie Hendrickson, of Kansas City, Mo., is the guest of relatives and friends.

First Lieut. and Mrs. John P. Harris are now at home at 219 Twenty-seventh street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Lieut. Harris is now stationed at the American university experiment station, research division, chemical warfare service, United States army. He has lately chief chemist for the Phoenix Cotton Oil company, being at the Graham apartments in Memphis.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ellis, of Memphis, were visitors in New York at the Hotel Astor for several days last week. Mr. Ellis, who is a member of the board of control of the National Wholesale Druggists' association, attended the meetings at the convention held in the Hotel Astor while he was in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis made an automobile trip through the Berkshire mountains while in the North. They stopped in Bathmore and Washington on their return home.

George Sanford, secretary of the Helena chamber of commerce, is visiting in Memphis.

Save fuel by using Metal Weatherstrips on windows and doors. Memphis Weatherstrip Co., Main 1298.

Beet Relish.

Three pints cooked beets put through coarse food chopper (leave stem on) and cook until tender. Drain off liquid and mix with one quart raw cabbage cut fine on sharp cutter, two cups horseradish, chopped fine, four cups sugar, one tablespoon salt, four and one-half cups vinegar. Bring to boiling point and seal.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Red Cross needs workers for special overseas services. The department of personnel of the Southern division has an urgent call for men in the two separate forces of service, one for overseas and the other for field representative. The former are stationed near the front and distribute hot drinks, socks, sweaters and other comforts to the men going into and coming out of the line. The workers remain at permanent posts.

The work of the field representatives deal directly with army commanders and heads of large hospitals. Men who qualify for these positions must possess tact, discretion and good judgment. They may be assigned to hospitals forming a point of contact between the Red Cross and commanding officers of hospitals. They will live with the troops and keep in touch with them in matters connected with their home affairs. Forty men are needed by the Southern division to fill these positions. All applicants are requested to communicate with the bureau of personnel, Healy building, Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Sam A. Pepper, chairman of the United Socks department, announces that her department is expected to furnish division headquarters with 2,000 pairs of socks by Jan. 1. She urges the knitters to rally to this call.

Workers in the hospital garments department are needed at headquarters to work on a large allotment of articles.

Mrs. R. B. Bickley, chairman of the surgical dressings department, announces that what is perhaps the most urgent call received by the Memphis division is the need of the following articles: Two hundred sheets, 2,283 handkerchiefs, 2,283 bath towels, 4,772 plain towels.

This order must be filled by Nov. 1. These articles are for the overseas forces of the U. S. army and must be donated immediately.

Women who can mark packages are requested to give their services as well as those who will volunteer to assist in the work of preparing the needed articles.

RED CROSS WORKERS ARE BADLY NEEDED

"Memphis has never failed on any Red Cross enterprise, or on any other that I know anything about," said Mrs. R. E. Snowles, Monday, "but I am deeply concerned over the outcome of the campaign to complete our linen shower quota by Nov. 1."

The Memphis chapter of the Red Cross is in need of handkerchiefs, bath towels, bath towels and sheets. Women who have no opportunity to work regularly at the Red Cross are earnestly requested to donate the articles mentioned. The handkerchiefs should be plain, but of good quality; the bath towels may be small and the bath towels also and the sheets should be for single beds.

In order to complete its quota the Memphis chapter is in need of 3,775 handkerchiefs, 4,770 bath towels, 2,283 bath towels, and 500 sheets. These articles will be sent abroad for use in the hospitals.

In addition to the donation Mrs. Snowles needs a large force of women to pack, fold and pack these articles. It will require a lot of work and as many women as can give their time will be needed every day until Nov. 1, when the campaign closes.

TWO CHARGED WITH VIOLATING BOOZE LAW

Nick Farano and "Smoky" Yarbrough have been arrested by deputies from the office of United States Marshal Stanley H. Trezevant on a charge of violating the government liquor laws in alleged transporting of whiskey from Carthersville to Memphis. Each made a $500 bond for a preliminary hearing Monday before Commissioner Fiske.

Bob Berryman, Sam Gold, Williams Gordon and Ethel Davis, arrested on a similar charge, were released on $1,000 bonds for each of the men. The latter woman made a $500 bond and will be in line for the use of the docks when the government fleet of barges come by Memphis on their second trip down the river. The terminals are in order for constant use, with barge landings, buildings, railroad truckage and other facilities.

PASHBY GOES TO CHICAGO WITH BONDS

Pashby, city clerk, will leave for Chicago Tuesday night with the river terminal bonds. He will convey the bonds to A. H. Leach & Co., purchasers, who get the funds indicated in the bond issue. Of this $225,000 will be turned over to the River and Rail Commission for payment for the street for river large line terminals.

It is hoped that all preliminary features of the terminals will be negotiated in time for the use of the docks when the government fleet of barges come by Memphis on their second trip down the river. The terminals are in order for constant use, with barge landings, buildings, railroad truckage and other facilities.

FAIR WEATHER FOR MEMPHIS WEDNESDAY

Generally fair weather prevailed over most of the Western states Tuesday morning, and local United States forecasters predicted it for Wednesday.

A new area of high pressure is sending another cold wave into the South. Texas, but it is expected to last but a few hours. What forecasters believe to be a "dry low" is forming over the North and may move southward in the last of this week.

A large line of falling at Vicksburg when observations were taken Tuesday morning. It was raining at Birmingham and at several points in Alabama and Georgia.

PROTEST SCHEDULES.

The Southern Traffic association has asked the cooperation of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce in combating the proposed changes in freight schedules that would place the South on a strictly mileage basis, eliminating river crossings and other features that have brought a lower freight rate to many Southern cities. The association charges that the proposed changes would bring about an average increase of approximately 45 per cent to Southern shippers and asks that the Tennessee congressional delegation be requested to fight the changes.

The transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce will take the matter in hand, and probably will wire Senators Shields and McKeithen and Congressman Fisher to investigate the impending change in schedules.
